

Chef Rakka of Café Rakka donates proceeds to The Big Swim

July 10, 2009

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Monica Wessel
(615) 308-6750
2009marlins@bellsouth.net

BIG SWIM RAISES $15K FOR LITTLE FIGHTER & VANDY

Hendersonville, Tennessee, USA—The Big Swim for a Little Fighter, a community-wide Swim-A-Thon and tennis tournament held at Bluegrass Yacht & Country Club, raised $15,000 to benefit Trace Kimler, who is battling Ewing's Sarcoma. A portion of the proceeds was donated to Vanderbilt Children's Hospital, where Trace is a patient. Over 300 people attended the event, and photos can be seen at the website, www.bigswim.us.

On behalf of Trace Kimler and his family, Big Swim co-chairs Jennifer Motz, Monica Wessel and Madelon Lycans would like to express gratitude to all sponsors and volunteers who helped make this event such an astounding success, including Café Rakka in Hendersonville, who donated $200 from special Big Swim Day proceeds at the Café.

Sponsors for The Big Swim for a Little Fighter included First Tennessee Bank, Brauer Material Handling Systems, Inc., Premier Orthopaedics -Gregg A. Motz, M.D., ACME Multisports, Bluegrass Yacht & Country Club, Instream LLC, TEAM McAuley, Star Heating & Air Conditioning, Inc., Baskin-Robbins of Hendersonville, Busy Bee Printing LLC, the Carruth family, the Walters family, Network Solutions Group LLC, Cheveux Salon and Spa, Brown's Florist, Papa John's Pizza, Casa Vieja Mexican Grill, Chick-Fil-A of Hendersonville, Cassel International, Tommy Koen, M.D., Allure Hair Salon, the Teal family, the Wessel family, the Biller family, and Café Rakka.

-END-